

MASC DAY ON THE HILL

April 29, 2008

State House ■ Boston

Agenda

- 9:00am                    Registration/Continental Breakfast, Great Hall
- 9:30am                    Morning Session, Gardner Auditorium
Greetings
Ellen Furtado, MASC President
- 10:00am                    Governor Deval Patrick
- 10:15am                    Presentation of MASC Public Policy Agenda/Legislative Priorities
Ellen Furtado, MASC President
Stephen Finnegan, Esq., MASC General Counsel
- 10:45am                    Senator Steven Panagiotakos, Chair, Senate Ways & Means Committee
- 11:00am                    Legislative Recognition
- 11:05am                    Representative Patricia Haddad, Chair, House Committee on Education
- 11:25am                    Senator Anthony Galluccio, Chair, Senate Committee on Public Service
- 11:45am                    Wrap-up
- Noon                        Luncheon Buffet, Great Hall
- 1:30pm                    Division VIII Meeting followed by Regional Caucus Program, Gardner Auditorium
- 2:15pm                    Visits with Legislators

■ A NOTE OF THANKS ■

MASC gratefully acknowledges the assistance of Representative Angelo Scaccia and legislative aide Michelle McLaughlin, as well as Suzzette Waters of the Bureau of State Office Buildings.

MASC also thanks the culinary arts students and instructors from the following vocational-technical schools for their skillful preparation and service of the breakfast and luncheon buffet: Assabet Valley, BayPath, Blue Hills, Cambridge Rindge and Latin High School, Cape Cod Technical, Everett High School, Diman Regional, Greater Lawrence, Greater New Bedford, Minuteman, Nashoba Vocational, Old Colony, Pathfinder, Keefe Technical, Southeastern, Tantasqua Regional, Weymouth High School, and Whittier Vocational. In addition, MASC thanks Chef Lou Trudeau, Assabet Valley, and Chef Steve Miranda, Old Colony, for their help in organizing and coordinating the breakfast and luncheon programs.